Induction Guide

Useful information ahead of your arrival at Newcastle, including a checklist and an overview of services provided by the University, can be found here.

In addition to the induction activities noted on your timetable, please complete the following by Friday 22nd September 2023. If you experience any difficulties, please contact your Learning & Teaching Assistant for assistance.

Registration – Instructions on how to register will have been sent to the personal email address you included in your application. Provisionally registering before you arrive will save you time when you get to University. For further details on how to do this please visit our guide to Online Registration.

The system used for registration (S3P) is also where you can keep your details up to date (e.g. change of address), produce standard University documents and notify the University of any absence from study.

For students who require access to the Architecture Building or Building Science, your smartcards will be updated during the induction weeks to provide authorisation. If you are still unable to access the buildings by Monday 9th October 2023 please email the School Reception (APLReception@ncl.ac.uk).

Campus and the Robinson Library –The Library will be a useful resource during your time at Newcastle. In addition, subject specific information is available.
